

The Emmanuel Community in South Florida "COME AND SEE"

The Emmanuel Community will be holding it's first of a series of "come and see" days in Miramar, Florida on Saturday, January 16th, 2010 at Blessed John XXIII Parish: 16800 Miramar Parkway, Miramar, Florida, 33027. Join us from 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. ending with the parish vigil Mass at 5:00 p.m.

Come and see how the Emmanuel Community, an International Catholic Community, can help you respond to God's call, no matter what your vocation or state of life may be. (For all: single, couples, consecrated, priest or seminarian; professional, stay at home parent or student.)

The Emmanuel community is a community centered on Eucharistic ADORATION and PRAISE that naturally leads us to have the same COMPASSIONATE heart of Christ which challenges us to go out and EVANGELIZE and tell others of His transforming love!

Come and learn more of how an intimate community of brothers and sisters, of all vocations and states of life, can help strengthen your faith, enrich your daily life and help you appreciate the beauty and richness of the Catholic Church.

Invite family and friends. We are praying and waiting for you.

For more information, please email Alejandra at acorrea@emmanuelcommunity.com